Rebecca Hopfensperger (SCC Councillor) Report November 2026

LGR is still on but we will not know what proposals are going to be brought forward until early 2027, shadow elections will still take place in 2028 with new unitary authorities coming into fruition in 2029, replacing the district and county council. District council elections will still go ahead in 2027 electing.

At cabinet it was agreed to:-

The laying of the statutory instrument which consents to making a Suffolk & Norfolk Combined County Authority, and that the mayoral elections will take place in 2028, the devolution deal comes with an investment fund of £37.4 million per annum over 30 years.